

European Society for Evolutionary Biology - 2009 Congress -

The 12th Congress of The European Society for Evolutionary Biology will be held in Turin, Italy, from Monday 24 to Saturday 29 August 2009.

The congress will cover the field of evolutionary biology in a wide sense, with emphasis on processes and mechanisms of evolutionary phenomena. The structure of the congress will be similar to previous meetings, each day starting with a plenary keynote speaker, followed by parallel symposia on a wide range of current evolutionary issues.

Plenary speakers: John N. Thompson, Massimo Pigliucci, Hanna Kokko, Cristina Vieira, Ian Tattersall.

Deadline for symposium proposal: 20 May 2008

Deadline for abstract submission: 15 February 2009
